Dear Director Bateman:

On behalf of the Lane County Board of Commissioners, I write to express our collective support for the technical assistance grant proposal being submitted by Lane County's Land Management Division.

This proposal advances our commitment to ensuring that Lane County is one of the best in Oregon for people to live, work, and play. Addressing our collective housing need and coupling this work with ideas rooted in our hazard mitigation planning will facilitate ensure that affordable, resilient and prosperous communities in rural Lane County for generations to come.

We appreciate your partnership as we all work together to address the challenges facing our great state, Oregon. We look forward to continuing to work with you on strategic investments that will improve the lives of the people we are privileged to serve.

Sincerely,

Pat Farr, Chair
Lane County Board of Commissioners
